Who We Are

The Friends of Robert Trail Library

is a growing organization of community members whose mission is to share our excitement for literacy and life-long learning through enhancing library services and resources.

Our purpose is:

- To focus public attention on library services and needs
- To foster relations between the library and the community
- To encourage volunteerism and opportunities for funding

We are a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. All funds generated are used for library and member events.

Become a Friend:

If you would like to become a member of
